

ASX Litigation - security for costs order

Monday 25th July 2022: Upon an application by ASX Limited, the Federal Court has ordered the Applicants in Federal Court proceedings VID1315/2019 bought against ASX to lodge $2.69 million with the court to secure the payment of the ASX's legal costs in the event that the Applicants are unsuccessful. The proceedings are stayed until that sum has been lodged.

Southern Cross Payments Limited (SP1) as First Applicant is currently in discussion with the other three Applicants about lodging that sum. A further announcement will be made once agreement has been reached about the extent to which SP1 will make or contribute to that lodgement.
